

TAILGATE BEER
Academic Credit Only
Management Intern
Management/Marketing/Accounting/Information Systems
Undergraduate Students

Company Background

TailGate Beer is The Unofficial Beer of America's Unofficial Pastime. It is owned and operated right here in beautiful San Diego, by a 23 year old graduate out of SDSU. Just over a year old, TailGate Beer strives to grow into a company that helps people who drink beer, turn into people who love beer.

Project Overview

We are looking for a highly organized individual capable of assisting with day to day activities, outstanding with customer relations and who is proficient in accounting and bookkeeping.

Responsibilities:

- Facilitate and oversee day to day activities of complete company operations
- Maintain and submit government filings
- Oversee daily order placement and deliveries
- Work directly with the owner and founder, shadow on important meetings and company growth

Skills and Requirements

- Must be current student in a related major
- Proficient in all PC office and accounting programs: particularly Excel, and QuickBooks
- Outstanding communication and interpersonal skills
- Extraordinarily organized
- Ability to thrive in an entrepreneurial environment
- Must be available day time on weekdays, while flexible around your school schedule

To apply please send your resume to Wesley Keegan at wesley@tailgatebeer.com